CANADA-EU RELATIONS AT A CROSSROADS: What Does It Mean for Canada?

Mr. Hornby was appointed Ambassador of Canada to the European Union in August 2006. Prior to this appointment, he was Assistant Deputy Minister, Strategic Policy, at The Department of Foreign Affairs and International Trade Canada, from 2003-2006.

Ambassador Hornby has had a distinguished career in Ottawa, having held senior roles in several Departments. Following a four-year tenure as Senior General Counsel and Head of Legal Services at the Treasury Board Secretariat of Canada, he was Assistant Secretary, Government Operations from 2000–2003. Early in his Career he served in senior legal counsel roles in Departments of Justice and Finance. We are delighted he has agreed to deliver the Sylvia Ostry Lecture.
