

DIRECTOR OF RESEARCH

The C.D. Howe Institute, Canada's foremost national, nonpartisan, nonprofit economic and social policy think tank is seeking a Director of Research. This position is located in Toronto.

Reporting to the President and Chief Executive Officer, the Director of Research will:

Set the strategic direction for the research program, in collaboration with the President, the research staff, outside scholars and experts. Conduct, lead, budget, schedule and control quality of research projects; Communicate the Institute's work to policymakers, businesspeople, academics, media representatives and the public; and Supervise, support, and foster the professional development of the Institute's research team.

Strong candidates will have:

Post graduate training in economics, or a related field; A strong track record of conducting and leading research; Experience in research organizations; Skill in managing a research team and liaisons with external authors and experts. Excellent skills in written and oral communication

Remuneration, including a bonus structure and benefits, will be commensurate with abilities and experience.

To be considered for this opportunity, submit your cover letter, CV and salary expectation in confidence by June 30, 2006 to Personnel Manager at personnel@cdhowe.org or C.D. Howe Institute, 67 Yonge Street, Suite 300, Toronto, Ontario M5E 1J8 fax 416-865-1866.

Please visit our website at www.cdhowe.org.

No telephone calls, please. We thank all applicants for their interest; however, only candidates selected for interviews will be contacted.