Jack Mintz begins feature column in Canadian Business

Toronto, April 15, 2002 — Jack M. Mintz, President and Chief Executive Officer of the C.D. Howe Institute, is now a regular contributor to Canadian Business, one of Canada's most influential business magazines. The first issue of Dr. Mintz's full-page feature column on Canadian public policy, which will appear once a month, was published in the March 18, 2002, issue of Canadian Business.

Joe Chidley, Editor of Canadian Business, said: "Jack Mintz is one of this country's leading thinkers on public policy and economics, and I'm both pleased and honored that he'll be contributing his wisdom and opinions to the pages of Canadian Business on a regular basis."
