

C.D. Howe Institute
Institut C.D. Howe

Research Analyst

(This is a full-time, 8-month assignment funded by the Max Bell Foundation Internship / Fellowship Program)

The C.D. Howe Institute, Canada's leading independent nonprofit research and public policy institute, is seeking an Intern / Fellow to assist in research at its office in Toronto. The position will commence as soon as possible. Please note, there may be a travel subsidy available for those who reside outside of Toronto.

The ideal Candidate will have:

- familiarity with current policy issues and data sources pertaining to health care or any two of: trade, tax and fiscal policy, monetary policy, and industrial organization;
- completed a B.A or B.Comm and is pursuing, or intends to pursue, postgraduate study in economics or a related field;
- a strong command of computer applications, including spreadsheets and statistical analysis;
- excellent communications skills, both orally and in writing.

Pay will be commensurate with the applicant's education and experience.

Please forward a detailed résumé and covering letter to:

Personnel Manager
C.D. Howe Institute, 125 Adelaide Street East
Toronto, Ontario
M5C 1L7
Fax: (416) 865-1866 or by email: cdhowe@cdhowe.org

Although we appreciate your interest, only candidates whose résumés are under consideration will be acknowledged.