As an independent, non-partisan, non-profit organization and a registered charity, the C.D. Howe Institute shares insight on policy challenges and developments.

The C.D. Howe Institute was born out of a need. A need to raise awareness of Canadian public policy challenges. A need for reasoned, evidence-based, constructive solutions.

For more than 60 years, the Institute has responded to that need. It has fostered research and discussion on issues that affect Canadians’ well-being, from trade and economic growth, through the effective design and sustainability of our education, health and income-security programs, to governance, accountability, and the health of our federation. And for more than 60 years, the Institute’s members and friends have supported that mission with their ideas, their participation and their donations.

Each year the Institute releases dozens of high-quality research and council reports that reach leaders in the private and public sectors across the country. The Institute’s research undergoes rigorous review by outside academics and independent experts, and its quality control is subject to an annual audit unique among public policy think tanks. In today’s world of fake news and polarized views, credible and constructive voices are more crucial than ever. Your support enables the Institute to add non-partisan, disinterested perspectives and fresh ideas to policy discussions. To present alternative approaches where evidence is uncertain. To tell it like it is.

You, the C.D. Howe Institute’s members recognize the continued need for authoritative work on Canada’s challenges and solutions. Your donations support the rigorous research and open dialogue that fosters better policy and improves Canadians’ lives. All Canadians benefit from your support.

We know how fortunate we are to be able to rely on such dedicated members. Thank you for your commitment to Canadian prosperity and quality of life, and thank you for your generous and ongoing support.

2019 Major Gifts and Grants

Thank you for making our work possible. The C.D. Howe Institute relies on your charitable support to deliver on our mission. We have modest resources and do not receive eight-figure endowments or major, multi-year government grants. All donations are purely philanthropic – the Institute does not accept any donations that stipulate a predetermined result or otherwise inhibit the independence of its staff and authors.

Targeted major gifts and event sponsorships enable supporters to bolster the Institute’s research and dissemination capacities in specific areas of interest. They complement the annual membership campaign, strengthening the Institute and enabling it to recruit scholars and support programs that enhance its ability to develop innovative solutions to policy challenges. We gratefully acknowledge the following donors and sponsors:

The Regent Debates are made possible thanks to the philanthropic support of Aaron and Heather Regent. With the goal of creating a platform for serious discussion on policy issues essential to Canada’s future, the debates bring together prominent voices to weigh in on top policy issues.

In 2019, the C.D. Institute hosted its third Regent Debate that addressed the question: should governments regulate Big Tech to protect the public interest?

Thank you to Aaron and Heather Regent for their generous multi-year gift to make these debates possible.

Aaron Regent is the founder and managing partner of Magris Resources Inc. and long-time director and supporter of the C.D. Howe Institute.

ABOUT THE INSTITUTE

The C.D. Howe Institute is an independent not-for-profit research institute whose mission is to raise living standards by fostering economically sound public policies. Widely considered to be Canada’s most influential think tank, the Institute is a trusted source of essential policy intelligence, distinguished by research that is nonpartisan, evidence-based and subject to definitive expert review.
